What's My Baby Thinking?

Practical Child Psychology for Modern Parents

Tanith Carey

The latest book from the authors of the globally successful child psychology series

THE PITCH

- NEXT IN POPULAR SERIES: The latest book from the authors of the globally successful child psychology series sold over 245K globally
- EVIDENCE-BASED: Features the latest statistics and research, offering a data-driven approach to parenting
- ACCESSIBLE: Appeals to time-poor readers who want plenty of 'take-home' information, visual explanations, and answers to burning questions
- EXPERT AUTHORSHIP: Written by a Clinical Psychologist, bringing academic rigour, alongside a parenting journalist, who makes the material engaging

THE BOOK

Your baby has a strong desire to communicate, but it isn't always easy to work out just what they are trying to tell you. In this fascinating, research-led book, parenting author Tanith Carey and Clinical Psychologist Dr Angharad Rudkin explain just what your new baby might be thinking, in 75 typical scenarios, from newborn to two years old.

What's My Baby Thinking? looks in depth at your baby's brain development, the neuroscience of behaviour, how babies learn, attachment, and communication. From 'Does My Baby Recognise Me?' and 'When will my baby stop crying?' to 'Why won't my toddler share?' and 'Is my toddler old enough to have a friend?', this book explores everyday parenting experiences to help you see the world from your baby's point of view.

Fully illustrated, and packed with practical advice on topics such as sleep development and separation anxiety, this fascinating book is a must-have resource for every new parent.

To Stand and Stare

Andrew Timothy O'Brien

Mindful gardening narrative suffused with a passion for ecology and the environment, and studded with gems of practical know-how

THE PITCH

- GARDEN POETRY: Andrew's beautiful prose is about mindful inspiration: you can Google how to prune a rosebush but this book shows you why it's magical
- SOCIAL PRESENCE: Author has a strong online presence: 17.6k Instagram followers, 4.5k downloads per podcast episode, and a popular blog
- PUBLISHING GAP: Narrative nature books have been successful – e.g. Chris Packham's Back to Nature – but there is a gap in the market for gardening narrative
- MINDFUL HOBBY: Gardening is recognized for its positive impact on mental well-being, with studies showing that it can reduce stress and improve overall mood (Thrive, 2022)

THE BOOK

Reconnect with nature from the ground up and nurture not only your garden but your soul.

There's a lot of gardening advice out there. But none that invites you to think about how to be while you're in the garden. With increasingly busy lives, yet another list of chores seems like the last thing we need when it comes to our own practice of self-care and relaxation. After all, aren't these the things we wanted to escape to the garden for in the first place? What if there was a more low-intervention way to garden, some reciprocal arrangement through which both you and your soil get fed - with minimum fuss, effort, and guilt on your part, and the maximum measure of healthy, organic growth for your garden?

In To Stand and Stare, Andrew Timothy O'Brien weaves together strands of botany, philosophy, and mindfulness to form an ecological narrative suffused with gardening know-how. Informed by a deep understanding and appreciation of natural processes, O'Brien encourages the reader to think from the ground up, as we follow the pattern of a plant's growth through the season - roots, shoots, and fruits - while advocating an increased awareness of our surroundings.

THE AUTHOR

Andrew Timothy O'Brien is an online gardening coach, blogger, and host of the critically acclaimed Gardens, Weeds & Words podcast. His mission is to help us understand our place in the world through the plants that surround us, whether the garden we know best is outside our house, on the window ledge, or within that patch of weeds we gaze at while waiting for the bus.

The View From Down Here

On Being Disabled in an Ableist World

Lucy Webster

A powerful, eye-opening insight into navigating the world as a disabled young woman

THE PITCH

- ADVOCACY & AWARENESS: Paperback publication to coincide with Disability History Month 2025 and features a new foreword that explains why we should all care about ableism
- ACCOLADES & ENDORSEMENTS: Chosen as one of Stylist's 10 essential feminist books to read in March 2025; paperback carries new endorsements from Rosie Jones and more
- MEDIA-SAVVY AUTHOR: Lucy has been featured by the BBC, the Guardian, The Times, the New Statesman, Radio 4's Today programme, the BBC's Ouch podcast and more
- UNTOLD STORY: There are few commercial books written by disabled people that tackle the intersection of disability and womanhood; this book fills this gap

THE BOOK

Women's lives are shaped by sexism and expectations. Disabled people's lives are shaped by ableism and a complete lack of expectations. But what happens when you're subjected to both sets of rules?

This powerful, honest, hilarious and furious memoir from journalist and advocate Lucy Webster looks at life at the intersection; the struggles, the joys and the unseen realities of being a disabled woman. From navigating the worlds of education and work, dating and friendship; to managing care; contemplating motherhood; and learning to accept your body against a pervasive narrative that it is somehow broken and in need of fixing, The View From Down Here shines a light on what it really means to move through the world as a disabled woman.

THE AUTHOR

Lucy Webster is a journalist covering disability issues in politics, society and culture for leading publications including the Guardian, The Times and the Financial Times. She is well known for the work she does to demystify disability and explain ableism to new audiences. Her newsletter The View From Down Here is one of the most prominent anti-ableism publications online. Alongside her journalism, Lucy is a vocal disability advocate, spreading awareness both on social media and as a public speaker. You can find her on Twitter: @Lucy_Webster_

Along The Ramayana Trail

A Cultural Journey Across India and Sri Lanka

Follow the epic Ramayana and embark on a transformative cultural and spiritual journey across India and Sri Lanka

THE PITCH

- EPIC JOURNEY: Takes readers on a captivating voyage across India and Sri Lanka, visiting more than 70 key Ramayana landmarks
- RICH CULTURAL HISTORY: An unforgettable glimpse into the heart of South Asian culture and spirituality and the rich cultural practices inspired by the Ramayana
- INCLUSIVE AND DIVERSE: Takes into account the Sri Lankan perspective on Ramayana (which is usually seen from an Indian perspective only)
- FAITH-BASED TRAVEL: The estimated value of global faith-based tourism is US $13.5 billion (Business Research Company); it is expected to reach $20.15 billion by 2028; Sri Lanka has seen a 72.9% increase in tourism (2022)

THE BOOK

Take an unforgettable journey across the heart of India and Sri Lanka, tracing the path of the epic Ramayana across sacred geographies.

Travel from the sprawling temple city of Ayodhya in northern India where Rama was born and the dense forests of Dandakaranya where he was exiled, to the misty Horton Plains in Kandy, believed to be the site of Ravana's airport and the reefs of Hambantota, once the Lankan king's citadel.

Walk in Rama's footsteps as he searches for Sita, experience Sita's yearning as she awaits rescue, follow Hanuman on his reconnaissance across the ocean, and relive the grandeur of Lanka, ruled by Ravana, a mighty king. And explore the cultural practices that have emerged from the Ramayana – from RamLila performances in Varanasi and the Tanjore paintings to the shadow puppets of Kerala.

In Along The Ramayana Trail, the reader will experience the epic's living heritage – at once a cultural odyssey and an essential guide to exploring two nations bound by one timeless story.

The Ecology Book

Big Ideas Simply Explained

DK's best-selling guide to the history of ecology – fully revised and updated

THE PITCH

- MARKET-LEADING FORMULA: A comprehensive, authoritative, and accessible guide to the “big ideas” of ecology and environmentalism, covering every key development in the field
- BOLD AND APPEALING: Clear, insightful explanations combine with illustrations, infographics, and pull-out quotes to bring each idea to life
- BRAND-NEW CONTENT: Fully revised and updated, with eight pages of brand-new content, including entries on One Health and halting biodiversity loss
- GLOBAL BEST-SELLER: Previous edition sold around 300,000 copies worldwide, while the “Big Ideas” series has sold more than 13 million copies across 130 countries and in 39 languages

THE BOOK

Get to grips with the key concepts that have shaped the way we think about the environment, ecosystems, and biodiversity, and our role in protecting the planet.

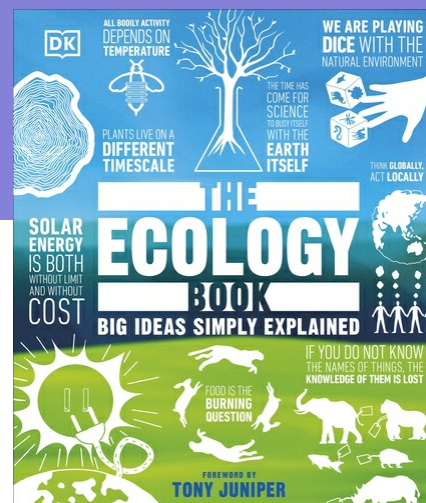

Packed with short, pithy explanations of more than 90 of the key milestones and groundbreaking ideas within the field, The Ecology Book is the perfect one-stop guide to the subject. Untangling knotty theories and shedding light on complex concepts, the book explores and explains each one through a combination of easy-to-follow text, memorable quotes, and innovative graphics.

Straddling biology, geology, geography, and environmentalism, individual entries explore everything from the ideas of classical thinkers and Enlightenment attempts to control nature, to discoveries such as the biosphere and renewable energy to theories like the Gaia hypothesis. The book also covers “green” issues – from the impact of pesticides and the plight of vulnerable species to the search for renewable energy – throughout, and features profiles of influential figures from Charles Darwin and Carl Linnaeus to Rachel Carson and William Nordhaus.

Whether you are new to ecology, a student of the subject, or simply concerned about what is happening to our planet, this is an essential introduction to the environment and climate change. Fully revised and updated with eight brand-new pages of content, The Ecology Book is a truly accessible and comprehensive guide to what is arguably the most important subject of our time.

The World of Avatar Updated Edition

Joshua Izzo

THE BOOK

Celebrate the ever-expanding world of James Cameron's Avatar and the first three installments of an epic cinematic journey.

The World of Avatar: Updated Edition celebrates, explores, and explains the spectacular world of Pandora, from its extraordinary geology, flora and fauna, to the customs and beliefs of its people, the mysterious Na'vi. Their battles with the RDA are also documented, along with the technology that the would-be colonisers aim to use against them.

The book uncovers key content from the first three films in the ongoing franchise: Avatar, Avatar: The Way of Water and 2025's most anticipated blockbuster Avatar: Fire and Ash. It combines original movie stills and artwork with stunning imagery from expanded experiences, such as Cirque du Soleil's Avatar-inspired show Toruk: The First Flight; and Pandora - The World of Avatar at Disney's Animal Kingdom.

Delve into the majestic moon of Pandora and discover the incredible wealth of creativity that led to the original becoming the highest-grossing film of all time and the series as a whole collecting four Academy Awards.

With a foreword by Avatar star Zoe Saldana (Neytiri), and an introduction by producer Jon Landau, The World of Avatar: Updated Edition is the perfect visual guide for excited fans hoping to get a sneak peek of Avatar: Fire and Ash, or anticipating the mammoth success of Avatar for years to come.

Wolverine the Ultimate Guide

A comprehensively updated and exhaustive exploration of the fan-favorite Marvel Comics Mutant Wolverine.

THE PITCH

- BEST-SELLING SERIES: DK's Ultimate Guides to comic book super heroes is a highly successful format, especially when timed with a movie release [Marvel Guardians of the Galaxy UG (2023) LTD 10,287]
- BOX OFFICE SMASH: Marvel Studios' R-rated Deadpool & Wolverine has grossed more than $1.2 billion, proving the Wolverine is still a popular and beloved character
- FULLY AUTHORISED: Created in full collaboration with Marvel Comics; packed with artwork from the original comics
- COMPREHENSIVE UPDATE The book has been thoroughly updated by expert authors to cover the latest Marvel comic book events.

THE BOOK

Uncover the secret and shocking history of The Wolverine.

James Howlett, Logan, Weapon X, Mutant, Patch: the Wolverine has had many names and titles over the decades, but who is he really under the mask?

Ever since his first comic-book appearance in The Incredible Hulk #189 (1974), Wolverine has left an indelible mark on the Marvel multiverse. Chart his evolution throughout the decades of Marvel Comics from his origins in rural Canada in the 1800s through to Wolverine's role in the first Krakoa era. Learn more about his stalwart allies, including the X-Men, X-23, and Captain America, and his vengeful enemies – like Sabretooth and Lady Deathstrike.

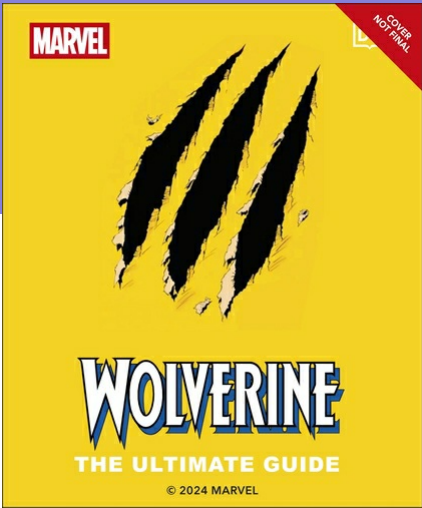

In this latest addition to DK's comprehensive, in-world super hero Ultimate Guides, you'll find everything you need to know about the Wolverine. This revised edition includes a foreword by a top Marvel Comics expert, a timeline of the Wolverine's adventures, detailed character studies, key storylines, and in-depth explorations of iconic comics, bringing this mutant's thrill-packed story right up to date.

Pop-Up Peekaboo! Tree

A fun pop-up and flaps board book that introduces curious preschoolers to the lifecycle of an apple tree

THE PITCH

- STRONG-SELLING SERIES: DK's Pop-Up Peekaboo! series has sold more than 9 million copies globally
- IDEAL FORMAT FOR EARLY LEARNING: Large, safe flaps hide pop-up surprises - perfect for hands-on play, promoting memory, and building fine motor skills
- BUILDS LITERACY: Research shows that "children who can recognize and predict rhymes, later go on to stronger achievement in reading than those who can't." (kidsacademy, 2021)
- GENTLE INTRODUCTION TO LIFE CYCLES: Children are introduced to a tree's life cycle in a fun and engaging way

THE BOOK

Peek under the flaps and watch a tiny pip grow into a leafy apple tree in this delightful board book for little ones.

How does a tree grow, and where do apples come from? Turn the pages of this beautiful book and find out! Babies and toddlers will love lifting big flaps to find five peekaboo surprises popping up from the pages: a single shoot emerging from a tiny pip, a sapling growing roots under the ground where worms and beetles burrow, bugs and birds making homes in the leafy tree, flower buds bursting into bloom, and fuzzy fruit buds growing into crisp and juicy apples.

The lively, read-aloud rhymes encourage literacy, while the beautiful pop-up scenes will surprise and captivate curious preschoolers as they guess what's hiding under each flap, and play peekaboo. And as little ones turn the sturdy board pages, they learn about nature and wildlife.

Ideal for interactive preschool play, Pop-up Peekaboo! Tree is certain to keep little ones entertained time and time again!

A Kids Book About Giving

Jessica Jackley

An accessible and empowering book about giving, designed to inspire thoughtful conversations between kids and grownups.

THE PITCH

- CONVERSATION STARTER: An accessible, informative and uplifting conversation about giving, written to empower the next generation
- AUTHOR EXPERTISE: Jessica has a long career in financial inclusion, social justice, and encouraging the growth of these traits in children
- APPROACHABLE & CHILD-FRIENDLY: Type-driven design allows kids freedom to imagine themselves in the pages with friendly, approachable, and kid-appropriate tone throughout
- DIVERSE & INCLUSIVE STORYTELLING: A Kids Co. was born with a mission to empower a generation of kids through diverse storytelling. The series features an incredible group of authors who are experts or have first-hand experience of the topic

THE BOOK

An accessible and empowering conversation starter about giving.

When you think of giving, what comes to mind? Do you immediately think of giving something to someone else, like money or a gift? There's something huge I want you to know—that kind of giving is great, but it can be so much more than that. You can give your time, your energy, your heart, a smile. And when we give with authenticity and joy, the world is a better, brighter place.

Meet A Kids Co., a new kind of media company with a collection of beautifully designed books that kickstart challenging, empowering, and important conversations for kids and their grownups.

THE AUTHOR

Jessica Jackley is an entrepreneur, investor, and speaker. Her work over the last 2 decades has focused on financial inclusion, the sharing economy, and social justice.

Jessica is best known as a cofounder of Kiva, the world's first crowdfunding site for microenterprises. Since its founding in October 2005, Kiva has facilitated over $1.5 billion in loans worldwide. Other contributions include Chief Impact Officer at Aspiration, Walt Disney Imagineering's first Entrepreneur in Residence, and founder of Alltruists, offering at-home, kid-friendly volunteer projects for families.

Jessica lives in Los Angeles with her husband, author Reza Aslan, and their 4 kids.

QUOTES

'...if you haven't come across the books, A Kid's Book About..., they're very clever. They basically distill quite complicated issues into very small amounts of text. And [...] leaves you that space for exploration and discussion.' Patrice Lawrence, writer-in-residence, Book Trust

A Kids Book About Being an Introvert

Amy Taylor & Josh Maynard

An accessible and empowering book about introversion, designed to inspire thoughtful conversations between kids and grownups.

THE PITCH

- CONVERSATION STARTER: An accessible, informative and uplifting conversation about being an introvert, written to empower the next generation
- APPROACHABLE & CHILD-FRIENDLY: Type-driven design allows kids freedom to imagine themselves in the pages with friendly, approachable, and kid-appropriate tone throughout
- DIVERSE & INCLUSIVE STORYTELLING: A Kids Co. was born with a mission to empower a generation of kids through diverse storytelling. The series features an incredible group of authors who are experts or have first-hand experience of the topic
- BEST-SELLING SERIES: Over 500,000 books sold globally across the collection, with a podcast named 'Apple Podcasts Best of 2021'; Listenership across 132 countries

THE BOOK

An accessible and empowering conversation starter about being introverted.

In a time when it seems like so much depends on small talk and friend count, life can start to feel a little awkward for the introverted kiddos of the world. This book explores the introvert experience from struggles to superpowers, on a mission to affirm those of us who find solace in a bit of silence and solo time. We have a lot to offer the world—and we do it our own way.

Meet A Kids Co., a new kind of media company with a collection of beautifully designed books that kickstart challenging, empowering, and important conversations for kids and their grownups.

THE AUTHOR

Amy Taylor (she/her) is an Ohio-based writer and storyteller. As a kid, she was a certified chatterbox, but that started to feel like wearing socks 3 sizes too small as she aged into adulthood. Today, she's a proud introvert (and Hufflepuff) who feels most like herself when spending time with her family, rescue dog, and garden.

Josh Maynard (he/him) is a designer in Arvada, Colorado, with a focus on creating more accessible web experiences for all. As a lifelong introvert and a dad to 3 (boisterous) tiny humans, he has the incredible challenge of finding much-needed time to recharge his introvert batteries while managing the ever-present to-do list that comes with dad duty.

Do you struggle to engage with science at school? Would you like to build your confidence in science both at home and in the classroom? Or are you a science whizz who wants to learn more? This Mammoth Science Workbook will help you master the basics, including states of matter, elements, chemical reactions, cells, energy, forces, our solar system, the rock cycle, and more.

Throughout the workbook, the mammoths act as your guide as they first explain a science concept and then reinforce it with practice questions and fun activities. Developed in conjunction with a science teacher, the Mammoth Science Workbook covers all the key areas of the curriculum for children aged 8–11 across biology, chemistry, physics, and astronomy, and cements learning with easy-to-follow instructions and clear examples.

Ideal for budding scientists and reluctant learners alike, the Mammoth Science Workbook offers a fun and light-hearted approach to improving your science knowledge.

All the World's Your Stage Shakespeare for Today

Discover the World of Shakespeare through 8 of his Most Famous Plays

Farah Karim-Cooper

Eight exciting Shakespeare retellings, alongside the story of his life and the history of Tudor London, all beautifully illustrated.

THE PITCH

- EXPERT AUTHOR: Farah Karim-Cooper has worked for the last 17 years as Professor of Shakespeare Studies, and is President of the Shakespeare Association of America
- KID-FRIENDLY RETELLINGS: Featuring lyrical and engaging retellings of 8 of Shakespeare's most famous works including A Midsummer Night's Dream and Romeo and Juliet
- ADDED HISTORICAL INFORMATION: Explains the life and times of Shakespeare, plus interesting information, from how they created the sounds and smells in The Tempest, to the magic and fairies in A Midsummer Night's Dream
- BEAUTIFULLY ILLUSTRATED: By up and coming artist and illustrator Manjit Thapp

THE BOOK

Introduce your child to the work of Shakespeare in this gorgeous treasury for all the family to enjoy. By expertly reimagining eight of the bard's most famous plays, Farah Karim-Cooper breathes new life into these well-loved works. With insightful and engaging storytelling combined with historical context and key themes for each play, readers will discover how Shakespeare gives us tools to think about the world today – and realize that Shakespeare really is for everyone.

Including kid-friendly summaries of:

- Romeo and Juliet
- Macbeth
- The Tragedy of Hamlet, the Prince of Denmark
- A Midsummer Night's Dream
- As You Like It
- The Tragedy of Othello, the Moor of Venice
- The Tempest
- The Merchant of Venice

THE AUTHOR

Dr Farah Karim-Cooper is the eighth director of the Folger Shakespeare Library in Washington DC, USA. The Folger opened in 1932 as a home to the monumental collection of Shakespeare's works and materials from the early modern world amassed by founders Henry and Emily Folger. Today, Dr Karim-Cooper leads a staff of around 150 who continue to grow and care for the collection, provide opportunities for research and scholarship, programme the Folger's Elizabethan-style theatre, offer training and classes for educators and students, and operate museum galleries and a café. As the Folger approaches its second century, Dr Karim-Cooper is positioning the organization as an international leader for practical applications of Shakespeare and the humanities in civic life.

Prior to joining the Folger, Dr Karim-Cooper was Professor of Shakespeare Studies, King's College London, and Director of Education (Higher Education & Research) at Shakespeare's Globe, where she worked for 20 years. While at the Globe, she led the architectural enquiries into early modern theatres as Chair of the former Architecture Research Group, overseeing the research into the design and construction of the Sam Wanamaker Playhouse. She was a co-project leader with the CEO and AD on the playhouse construction.

Dr Karim-Cooper served as President of the Shakespeare Association of America 2021–2022 after serving 5 years on the Board of Trustees. She is the recipient of the British Shakespeare Association Fellowship Award 2023 for her contribution to Shakespeare Studies and Inclusivity. She held an Oxford Humanities Cultural Programme Fellowship and was Visiting Fellow of Exeter College Oxford from 2022–2023.

She has published over 40 chapters in books, reviews, and articles and served as a co-General Editor for Arden's Shakespeare in the Theatre series and their Critical Intersections Series. She has published several books on Shakespeare, theatre, performance, and culture, including: Cosmetics in Shakespearean and Renaissance Drama (Edinburgh University Press, 2006, revised ed. 2019) and The Hand on the Shakespearean Stage: Gesture, Touch and the Spectacle of Dismemberment (Arden, 2016). She co-edited Shakespeare's Globe: A Theatrical Experiment with Christie Carson (Cambridge University Press, 2008); Shakespeare's Theatres and Effects of Performance with Tiffany Stern (Arden, 2012) and Moving Shakespeare Indoors: Performance and Repertoire in the Jacobean Playhouse with Andrew Gurr (Cambridge University Press, 2014); she edited a collection of essays for Arden, Titus Andronicus: The State of Play (2019) and edited the text of John Webster's The Duchess of Malfi for the Routledge Anthology of Early Modern Drama, collated by Jeremy Lopez (2020). Her book, The Great White Bard: Shakespeare, Race and the Future (2023) was voted top 100 books of 2023 by Time Magazine, NPR and The New Yorker. Her latest book, All the World's Your Stage: Shakespeare for Today, is written specifically for children ages 9–12. It will be published in November 2025 by DK.
